

Milica Kućerović was born in Priština in 1994. After finishing elementary music school in Raska, she continued her studies in the secondary music school Stevan Mokranjac in Kraljevo. At the end of her first year at the Department for music theory, she enrolled in the vocal-instrumental department under the professional supervision of Professor Marija Ostojić (piano). While studying at this school, Milica won second prize at the competition Aleksandar Šaca Putnik twice (category: "Harmony and Analysis of Musical Form" in 2012 and 2013). At the end of her fourth year there, Milica was declared as the best student of the generation. After completing her high school studies, she enrolled in undergraduate academic studies at the Faculty of Music in Belgrade, Department of Music Theory. Milica's papers written on the subject Analysis of Musical Forms were presented twice at The Annual Meeting of Music Theory students (2016 and 2017). She is currently in her second year of doctoral academic studies at the Faculty of Music in Belgrade, Department of Music Theory.